Mr. Earl Belcher
PO Box 282
Cave City, AR 72521

Dear Mr. Belcher:

I am writing to you today on behalf of the Whitman-Hanson Regional School District to express our sincere thanks for the donation of your Class of 1951 Whitman School yearbook, an important addition to our yearbook archives. We greatly appreciate your continued generosity to the school system.

Your friend, Mr. McSweeney, was kind enough to hand deliver the yearbook to our office. Although I did not have the pleasure of meeting him, I know that everyone in Central Office enjoyed his visit. We hope that you both will stay in touch.

Again, thank you for your contribution. We have placed a bookplate in the front of the yearbook to acknowledge your donation.

Sincerely,

Ruth C Gilbert-Whitner

the Whitman High School Yearbook

Class Flowers ~ Carnations
Class Colors ~ Maroon and Silver
Class Motto ~ "Our Knowledge Is Our Power;
And God Our Strength"

FOREWORD

Our four years at Whitman High have drawn to a close. We leave: some for college, others to enter the business world, and a few to go into the service of our country.

A great deal has been accomplished during our years here--a new guidance program, the driver training course, the coke machine, new backdrops for the auditorium, and establishment of the "Spectator". What a feeling of pride to realize that we have been associated with all this!

The pupils have grumbled about the strict teachers, and the teachers have complained about the lazy pupils, but in reality our relationship has been one of great satisfaction to all. We would like to acknowledge the gratitude we owe the entire faculty for its unceasing help and co-operation.

However, it hasn't been all books and studies. Remember those wonderful football games, the dances, the Senior Class Play, and the longest football rally in Whitman High School history? These extra-curricular activities have added greatly to school spirit and our happiness.

At the present time it seems quite certain that many of our classmates will be in the Armed Forces soon after graduation. It is our sincerest hope that theirs will be a short but fruitful term of service.

This is the yearbook of our class, the class of 1951. It is a portrayal of our classmates, their achievements, their habits, and their ambitions. We, the yearbook staff, would like to feel that we have captured something of the life and spirit of Whitman High School that will serve to revive many fond memories twenty-five and fifty years hence.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Dedication

To Mrs. Payton, who loyally guided us through our Sophomore year and the first few months of our Senior year, we co-dedicate our Yearbook. She willingly gave of her time and effort to make our many class activities successful, and for this we offer our heartfelt thanks.

At present she is on leave of absence, but the class of '51 sincerely hopes that Mrs. Payton will soon be able to return to share her wisdom and kindness with the future classes of Whitman High School.

Mrs. Payton

To Miss Gilbert in appreciation of all she has done for us during our Senior year, we write this dedication in our Yearbook. The success of our class play and the production of our Yearbook are both due to Miss Gilbert's cheerful and willing assistance. For this we owe a greater debt than the co-dedication of this book could ever repay.

Thank you, Miss Gilbert, for everything.

Miss Gilbert

Principal's Message:

You have reached a milestone on life's highway, an important milestone. You have achieved a high school education. No one can take it from you. I would urge you, however, to continue your education if possible. Do not let your graduation be the end of education for you. Let it be the beginning. I would further urge that as you go forth, whatever you do, always dare to do the right thing. Dare to stand out from the crowd and do the things that you know are right because you really want to do them. And keep clean physically, mentally and spiritually. You may fool others but you have to live with yourself and there is one person you cannot fool. That person is you.

Class Gifts

By Eleanor Bates and Joseph McCarthy

ROBERT AITKEN — Football

To Bob we pass this football.
He's a hard man to stop;
Not only on the field,
But also in the shop.

ROBERT ANDREWS — Duck

To Bob we give this bird,
For he waddles like a duck.
But, no matter how he walks,
We wish him "Best of Luck."

GEORGE ATWOOD — Funny Book

To George we give this funny book;
We hope it makes him smile.
When he starts laughing,
It lasts for quite awhile.

JOHN AUZIN — Beginners' Piano Book

This beginners' book for you, John,
In case you ever forget.
You can start all over and begin anew
Without a single regret.

RICHARD AVERY — Pump

Butch can man this pump;
He's at the station every day.
So why not help his business,
And drive around that way?

RONALD BABINEAU — Scissors

To Bab we give these scissors
To cut his golden curls;
And when he gets his hair cut,
Watch-out, girls.

GERALD BARCLAY — Rags

The opposite is sometimes true,
As you can often tell.
Somehow you got the name of "Rags",
Yet you're a Beau Brummell.

ELEANOR BATES — "W"

This "W" is for Eleanor;
She has done a lot for the school.
In sports and classroom alike,
She's followed the golden rule.

EARL BELCHER — Rocks

Earl will recognize this rock;
He makes a study of them.
And some day we hope to hear
He has found a precious gem.

LAURA BENOIT — Soldier

For Laura we have a soldier
To replace hers while away.
We hope he'll fill the bill
And make her happy and gay.

JOHN BENSON — Hammer

Hammers are for carpenters,
A very handy tool.
John has learned to use it
Every day at school.

WESLEY BLANCHARD — Bachelor Article

We must present a bachelor;
Wesley is our man.
You'll find him at Brown's;
Date him if you can.

CHARLES BONJOKIAN — Soldier Manual

Charlie gets a manual
To bring him up to date,
Because soldiers in the army
Like a higher rate.

GEORGE BONJOKIAN — Razor Blade

G.G. needs a razor blade
And so we give him this.
Be very careful when you shave;
We wouldn't want a miss!

ALLAN BRALEY — Ball of Fuzz

To Allan goes this ball of fuzz,
A reminder of his name.
When he gets a hair cut,
The barber's not to blame.

JOANNE BROOKS — Ring

To Joanne we give this ring,
For we know she'd like
To be married very soon
To a guy named "Ike."

ELEANOR BUCKLEY — Blondex

Blondex we have for Eleanor now
Because her hair is so very fine.
When she leaves us pretty soon,
This will make her pretty hair shine.

RICHARD COLWELL — A Star

Dick, you see this star.
It will remind you of a street,
And a certain dear friend
You always like to meet.

RICHARD CHAMBERS — Memory Book

We'll give Dick a memory book
To keep him keen and bright.
You ask him an auto number,
And he will guess it right.

BASILE COMEAU — A Pack of Cards

A pack of cards for Basile;
Practice is the theme.
You know he's in the navy
And always on the beam.

COLETTE CHIROS — Starch

To Colette we give this starch
Because she is so neat.
She starches everything she wears
From her head down to her feet.

MERVYN COOK — Keyboard

Music appeals to Mervyn;
Popular music he can play.
His own orchestra he may have
In some future day.

DONALD CHRISTIANSEN — Picture

This picture of Rudolph Valentino
We have for Christy now,
For when he is out with the girls,
They say he's quite a "wow."

VIRGINIA CORREIA — Map

To Virginia we give this map,
For she likes to go for a ride.
And we never want to lose her
When she tours the countryside.

RICHARD CHAMPION

GERALD CLANCY — Baseball Bat

To Gerald we pass this bat,
And with it in his hands
He makes the winning hit,
That brings cheers from the stands.

NORMA COUGHLIN — A Bill

A "bill" is Norma's now to keep
While the real one is away
To Parris Island she will go;
With this she'll pay her way.

ANNE CLOSE — Chuckles

To Anne we give this box of chuckles;
She always has a smile.
And like this little box of candy,
She chuckles all the while.

NEAL CROSS — Gun

Neal is quite a hunter.
He thinks it's lots of fun;
So to make him right at home,
We present him with this gun.

DOROTHY COFFEY — License

For Dot we have a license,
For soon she'll marry Franky,
The best cream in her "coffey"
Whose tall, fair, and lanky.

WALTER CUNNINGHAM — Car

To Wally we give this car
To fix and make anew.
When all is repaired,
He may paint it blue.

CLAYTON COLEMAN — Box of Pepper

To Clayt we give this box of pepper
To help you with your sneezin,
For when you age, you might grow weak;
And your sneezin change to wheezin.

JOSEPH DaSILVA — Figures

Joe is good at figures,
The best that can be had.
However, do not be confused;
These aren't the ones you add.

RICHARD DEROSIER — Fish

By name, they call him "fish";
He's always in the swim.
When it comes to sports,
He is full of vim.

WILFRED DUGGAN — Green Shamrock

From Ireland comes the shamrock,
And maybe Duggan too.
He's always very happy
When there is little for him to do.

GENEVIEVE FOX — Red Ribbon

A little red bow we give to you
To match your pretty hair.
Your temper surely doesn't match it,
For we've never seen you flare.

PHYLLIS FRENCH — An Andy Panda

To Phyllis we give this little Panda,
Which reminds her of a boy.
Up from Hanson he does come
To bring her lots of joy.

MARY GAGNON — Telephone

A telephone rings for Mary;
Some one is on the line.
She will promptly answer
And say the call is mine.

ROBERT GAUDETTE — Laugh Book

A book of laughs we give to you;
You're always welcome in a mob.
And never does a thing pass by,
But do we hear a laugh from Bob.

PATRICIA GOLDMANN — Memorandum

This girl is very clever;
In life she will go far.
But in one thing we'll caution her,
"Just don't forget your car!"

RAMONA GONZALEZ — Parrot

To Ramona we give this parrot;
We don't mean to give her the bird,
But when it some to talking,
She never lacks a word.

JANET GRAY — Megaphone

We give this little horn to Janet.
Yes, it is a megaphone;
And now she will be able
To call it all her own.

MARILYN GRISWOLD — Key

This is a key, as you can see,
To fit a roller skate.
To Maple Arena she will go,
And there we know you'll surely rate.

VIVIAN GURNEY — Name

An opera star our Viv will be,
And then be winning fame.
And up in lights we all will see
Her famous and great name.

ROSE HARRINGTON — Powder

To Rose we give this powder
To put upon her face.
She really is quite pretty
When dressed up all in lace.

CHARLENE HATCH — Little Sack

To our little wit we give
A fancy little sack,
Where she may pack her store of jokes,
Which many of us lack.

ROBERT HORTE — Blue Ribbon

To Bob we give this blue ribbon
Not for horses, or hens, or hogs.
This boy, tho he's quiet and sober,
Has really gone to the "dogs."

WILLIAM INGALLS — Map of Roads

To Bill, here's a map of "rhodes",
Of his girl, a reminder.
Maybe he can use it
When he goes to find her.

FREDERICK JOHNSON — Flashy Socks

To Fred we give these flashy socks
To go with his sharp shirts.
He has his one and only girl
And never, never flirts.

RICHARD KELLAWAY — Life Savers

These life savers are for Dick,
So he'll never run short.
If you ask him for some,
He'll always have a lot.

THOMAS McCARTHY — Joke Book

For Tom we have this joke book;
To us he was a happy boy.
When there was a dull moment,
He always brought us joy.

NORMAN KENNEALLY — Rope

Our president is a busy man;
His schedule is always full.
But this rope will be a help
If he ever needs a pull.

LAWRENCE B. McLAUGHLIN — A Scoop

For Lawrence we have this "scoop";
It represents his name.
But when we think of autos,
That is where he gets his fame.

WILLIAM LOUD — Tomahawk

For "Ugha" we have this tomahawk,
Our big chief in basketball.
When he played for Whitman High,
He always gave his all.

LAWRENCE E. McLAUGHLIN — Box of Pep

To Sam we give this box of pep,
For very slow is he.
Whether this will do him good
We'll have to wait and see.

CLAIRE MacDONALD — A Farmer

You do not live upon a farm;
Why do they call you "Farmer?"
With your sharp clothes, we might suggest
We change your name to "Charmer."

PATRICIA McMILLAN — Clock

Pat is always in such a hurry;
We thought we'd give her a clock
With some extra time
So she could stop and talk.

RUSSELL MANSON — Druggist Coat

For Russell we have this coat;
Up to Hovey's he will be.
He makes the best of sodas;
Why don't you go up and see?

EDWARD McSWEENEY — Camera

Eddie's gift is a camera;
To him it will be a flash.
When he leaves we hope
His talent will bring him cash.

RUSSELL MAYER — Box of Dates

For Russell we have this little box;
In it he'll find a date.
He hasn't had many at Whitman High
He deserves a change in fate.

BETTY MEANS — Stilts

For Betty we have this little gift,
For she's so very small.
We think if she does wear these
That she'll be very tall.

JOSEPH McCARTHY — Red Sox Schedule

A Red Sox schedule we have for Joe
To keep up with their games.
Even though it's not his team,
We're sure he likes them just the same.

GERALD MOFFATT — A Racer

Here's a gentle word of warning
Heed it well or lack-a-lass!
Keep your eye upon the road, boy,
When you bear down on the gas!

MADELINE McCARTHY — Hood's Ice Cream

For Madeline we have this ice cream,
And they say it's quite good.
And we think she'll prefer this brand
Because it's made by Hood.

BARBARA NICHOLS — Plane Ticket

To Barb we give this plane ticket;
She loves to travel up high.
Her ambition is to see our country
From way up in the sky.

VIRGINIA PARKER — Arthur Murray Dance Book

To you a Murray Dance Book;
It teaches grace and co-ordination.
And when you appear on the stage
May you have audience adoration.

PATRICIA RUSSO — Box of Shrimp

To little Patty of our class
We give this box of shrimp,
For she is such a shorty
They remind us of this whimp.

NED PARKS — Ice Box

To Ned we give an ice box
To carry all about;
To remind him of a girl
He'd sure like to take out.

CHARLES SHAW — Grease Paint

To Charlie here's some grease paint
To carry on his show.
He'll graduate from Minstrel Man
To a television beau.

SANDRA PARROTT — Toothpaste

Here's some toothpaste for our Sandra;
She really has beautiful "mowers".
We hope she'll always keep 'em
And not purchase new uppers and lowers.

ROBERT SINGLETON — Ticket

We've bought a ticket for Bob
If to Florida he wants to go.
He can leave his car at home
With no fret of tires to blow.

JOAN PIERCE — Hotdog Stand

A hotdog stand we give to Joan;
She'll sell them by the yard.
May we suggest a place to start
Would be the boulevard?

MILDRED SMITH — Curlers

For you a box of curlers
Tho why, we'll never know,
Except that to make you understand
Thru what trials the rest of us go.

BERNARD POWERS — Baseball

To Bernie we give a baseball,
Who is our Bobby Doerr;
When he steps up to bat,
The crowd will really "roar."

JOLINE SNOW — Snowflakes

Some snows are very chilly;
Some snows are cold and fearful.
But in the Class of '51
Here's a snow who's cheerful.

JANE ANN POWERS — Date Book

Here's a peach of a date book,
And as the time flies by,
We hope you fill its pages
With the apple of your eye.

MARIE SULLIVAN — Dunce Cap

To "Sully" we give this dunce cap,
She's the valedictorian of our class.
No matter in French, English, or math
Everyone else she does surpass.

BARBARA READE — Hymn Book

To Barbara we give this hymn book;
It's filled with many a song.
And when you marry your parson,
May your life be happy and long.

JOHN SWAN — A Swan

This swan is a symbol of his name;
He's quiet and reserved.
Success should crown his efforts,
And it will be deserved.

CAROLE RHODES — Nurse's Cap

A nurse's cap we give to Carole,
To start her on her career,
Of becoming one of the greatest nurses
That we've ever seen around here.

CHARLES SWEENEY — Bow Tie

Charlie gets a bow neck tie;
He dresses right in style.
What a groom he would make
Walking down the aisle!

LORRAINE TASSINARI — Spaghetti

To Tess we give this box of spaghetti;
Italians love it we know.
And when we're craving a spaghetti dinner;
To Tessie's house we'll go.

ALTON TAYLOR — Whistle

Alton, here's a little whistle;
You aim to be a cop.
When we see you on duty,
We'll never fail to stop.

WILLIAM TAYLOR — Anchor

Here's an anchor for Willy
So tall, so straight, so fair
To help him keep his feet on earth.
"Say, How is the weather up there?"

PRISCILLA THOMAS — Noise Maker

To Priscilla we hand this noise maker;
She has always been so quiet.
If only she would blow on this,
It would start a little riot.

RALPH THOMAS — Hotrod

To Ralph we give a "hotrod."
It represents his name.
While driving all his little cars,
We hope he'll just keep tame.

JEAN TIBBETTS — Box of Dirt

We think that we have never seen
A girl that's quite as neat as Jean.
And so, accept this box of dirt;
To be as neat as that must hurt.

ARTHUR TURNER — Account Book

To keep a record of your expense,
We give to Art this book.
For someday you may need it,
When you find yourself a cook.

ELIZABETH TURNER — White Bridge

To Elizabeth we give a white bridge,
A place unknown to us.
Someday maybe she'll tell us;
In her we all will trust.

MARGARET TURNER — Cook Book

A bride someday our Margaret will be,
And then be cooking for her "he."
We know this little book will help
Because it's full of recipes.

HOWARD WATERMAN — Traffic Laws

To Howard we give these traffic laws
So when he drives his car,
His father won't have to worry
When he travels fast and far.

STANLEY WEBBER — Boat

A boat we have for Stan;
We hear he wants a few.
Someday he'll be the captain
Of a ship and crew.

JOAN WELCH — Short Circuit

One day we went into her store.
Imagine our surprise;
In joking, we asked for a short circuit,
And she replied, "What size?"

ROBERT WILLETT — Licorice

Our future coach to be
Is a great big cheerful lad.
We give to him this licorice
To chew if ever sad.

CLAIRE WRIGHT — Type Book

Claire is quite a typist;
They say she is the best.
For her gift we give this book;
At speed she'll beat the rest.

ROBERT WRIGHT — Spare Tire

Robert has a car,
And he handles it with care;
But if he gets a blow out,
He'll certainly need a spare.

RONALD WRIGHT — Oil Truck

Ronnie needs this oil truck
To help his father out;
And he can always use it
If his car goes "up the spout."

CLASS PROPHECY

By Russell Mayer and Jean Tibbetts

The first scene that I see as I look into this tea cup is a beautiful hospital, a very large one. The scene is clearer now; I can see inside the building. There are two doctors in consultation. One I recognize as a surgeon of renown, Dr. Edward Parks. His efficient secretary is about to take dictation. Her name used to be Norma Coughlin. She's married now and I'm not sure what it is. Dr. Park's assistant is none other than the famous Dr. Christiansen. I think they are about to perform a delicate operation on the noted author, Mr. Joseph DaSilva, whose latest book for high school students, "How to Simplify Homework in Two Easy Lessons," has been recently judged a best seller. I see two very attractive nurses in attendance. Why, it's Genevieve Fox and Carole Rhodes!

At the end of one of the corridors I see an office. Phyllis French, head bookkeeper, is talking with Jean Tibbetts, the receptionist. Just about to leave the office is Frederick Johnston, a smooth, fast-talking salesman for the Ralph Thomas Hospital Supply Co. He has just closed a contract for a large order of supplies.

It is visiting hours and someone seems to be in the waiting room. Why it's Bob Andrews, the successful horticulturist, who is famous for the new, much-talked, of French orchid.

As I look further I notice a great industrial center. There are many tall buildings and people are hurrying to and fro. On one building appears the name M. Cook Piano Company. Entering the office are William Ingalls and John Swan. They have recently returned by plane from a trip to Africa where they have procured many orders from the natives for Cook pianos. In one of the luxurious offices I see Vice-President Allan Braley with his private secretary, Mildred Smith. At the moment he is talking to Claire Wright, the head accountant of this large firm.

Another building which I recognize in this metropolis is the Orpheum Theater. There's a large, noticeable sign which reads--Feature Today -Ronald Babineau in Person at the Hammond Organ. The picture being shown stars Gerald Barclay, the famous heart breaker, co-starred with Anne Close, beautiful blond of stage and screen. Anne's exquisite clothes are fashioned by Betty Means, the noted designer. The ticket line extends for a whole block and people are waiting impatiently to see this performance.

Down the block I see a crowd of people waiting to receive free samples of Virginia Parker's Bigger Better Bubble Gum guaranteed to give you bigger, better bubbles.

Looking across the street we see a large newspaper office. Inside, behind a door inscribed Norman Kenneally Comic Strip Editor, we see Norm tearing his hair out. In his cartoon he is trying to save his hero "Hatchet Nose" Harry from the clutches of Creepy Clarence who is about to push him into a cement mixer. In another office we see Charlene Hatch. Her desk is piled high with mail, for Charlene has taken over Dorothy Dix's column, "Advice to the Lovelorn." A late news flash appears. It really is news, too! George Bonjokian has completed his swim across the English Channel and has broken all previous records. Richard Kellaway, Editor-in-Chief, hurriedly enters the office with orders for two people to cover a fire now going on at Coleman's Garage. Clayton's newest super-deluxe Cadillac is ablaze! He sends Marilyn Griswold and Mary Gagnon, reporters, to get the news.

Now I see a huge ballroom. Tonight there's to be a Battle of Music between Scoop McLaughlin's "Beat Me Daddy Eight to the Bar Boys" and Bob Willett's "Brazilian Brush Cutters." Janet Gray and Ronnie Wright, noted dance team, will be here in person.

As I look further I see a magnificient summer resort owned by Lawrence E. McLaughlin. Registered at his luxurious hotel is Barbara Nichols, noted lecturer. She has just returned from a tour of speaking engagements. Her subject has been "Loquacity for Women is a Necessity." Also registered here is Barbara Reade, recent winner of a nation-wide typing contest.

On the boulevard I see a hotdog stand and business is thriving. I can see why! The proprietress is none other than Joan Pierce, who could talk anybody into buying anything, even her hotdogs. Her dogs are sampled by Doc Goldmann.

Further along the boulevard is the exclusive and fashionable "Les Quatre Cent Shoppe," owned and operated by Claire MacDonald and Madeline McCarthy. The shop has recently been redecorated by Rose Harrington. Just leaving is Mrs. Walter Estes, the former Joanne Brooks, and her two children. They are getting into a beautiful new Buick. Joanne and her family live on a magnificent estate nearby.

Walking along the beach is Pat McMillan, who owns her own airline now. Employed as airline hostesses are Laura Benoit and Eleanor Buckley. She is talking to Vivian Gurney, the renowned opera star. They are discussing Charlie Sweeney's new invention, a pocket-size walkie-talkie, which enable pupils to talk back and forth in study hall without being heard.

The scene is changing now. We seem to be in a large cow pasture. No, no of course not, it's a baseball park and there's a game in progress. It's a contest between the Clunkville Creampuffs, owned by Neal Cross, a renowned business tycoon, and the Dogpatch Daisy Pickers, owned by Gerald Moffatt, who was also the winner of last year's Indianapolis Speedway Race. These two teams were brought into the American league by baseball's new commissioner, Smiling Dixie Duggan, to provide some stiffer competition for the New York Yankees. It really looks like baseball's hall of fame down on that field. What an outfield! There's Bob "Long Ball" Singleton, so-called because he clouts that long ball. And there's Bill "Ugha" Loud, the last of the Mohicans, who threatens to slug that ball right back to the reservation every time he steps up to the plate. It looks like Gerry "Shotgun" Clancy is sitting this game out on the bench because he's ruined ten good catchers already. Every time he tries to cut a run off at the plate from centerfield he drills a hole through the catcher. The head grounds keeper is Richard Avery. Since Richard wanted a beautiful ball park,he took some of his own salary and hired Bob Horte, the famed horticulturist,to line the first and third base coach boxes with some colorful flowers. Up in the press box Bob Aitken is giving us a play by play description of the ball game. In the off season Bob stars in the backfield for the champion Boston Bean Bags. Over in the television booth Ed McSweeney is busily operating the camera and giving directions to his assistants, Bob Reckord and Wesley Blanchard. These same three also own and operate a chain of variety stores. There seem to be quite a few celebreties in the stands also. Over here in the box seats we see Earle Belcher and John Benson who really bowled them over for the New Jersey roller derby team. What's this contraption coming through the crowd? Oh, yes, we read about it in Walter Cunningham's newspaper of which he is editor-in-chief. It's a portable milkshake mixer invented by Russ Manson and Basile Comeau. Russ Manson carries a huge barrel on his back and Basile churns the milkshake with an egg beater. Why there's Joline Snow, the woman who owns and operates that huge wanderer's home, and is she beautiful! No wonder so many children are running away from home and becoming wanderers. With her is Lorraine Tassinari, who was voted top woman athlete of the year. Over in the seats in back of third base are four attractive women. They seem familiar. Why, of course. they are Priscilla Thomas, Colette Chiros, Elizabeth Turner, and Virginia Correia,who together own a large building and wrecking company. Their speciality is building bridges, especially "white bridges." But let's get back to this exciting ball game. Zeke Chapman, manager of the Creampuffs, has signalled to the bullpen for his star relief pitcher Dick "Fish" Derosier. The Daisy Pickers have taken a commanding one run lead to break a scoreless tie in the 33rd inning. Dick Colwell, the rival manager, is going into hysterics he's so delirious with joy. It seems he has a ten-cent bet with Zeke on the outcome of the game.

Now as I turn the tea cup I see a large ocean liner. Up on the bridge we see Captain Stretch Taylor, ably assisted by first mate Charles Shaw. Charlie has taught Willie to sing, and together, they serenade the seagull perched in the rigging. Up in the bow we see rugged Robert Wright standing by the anchor chain. Evidently it is Bob's job to haul the anchor up and down. Well, he always was a power-guy. Down in the Recreation Lounge on this giant liner we see John Auzin tickling the ivories and thrilling the audience in his own inimitable fashion. John, you know, is a master of the classics and "eight to the bar music." Enjoying John's music is U. S. Army Air Force General, Charles Bonjokian. General Bonjokian is on his way to Europe to head our huge defense program there. Since the general is a busy fellow , the Air Force has obligingly sent two very capable WAFS to serve as his secreteries. They are Sandra Parrott and Margaret Turner. It looks as if the European defense problem will be straightened out in short order with those two on the job. We see another old friend in the lounge. It is none other than Dorothy Coffey. Dorothy, it seems, is going to France to see if all the things her French teacher said about that country are true.

Well, what have we here?Why it's Tom "Iggy" McCarthy and his "All Night" television variety show. From 12 midnight to 6 in the morning, that is. That's the only time the sponsor, Red Taylor would allow Iggy to turn his murderous sense of humor loose on the poor unsuspecting audience. Red Taylor,you know, is the fabulously rich owner of a string of restaurants. The second portion of the show is sponsored by the Hot Rod Boat Company,which builds anything from a battle ship to a scow and is owned and operated by the happy trio of hot rods,Howard Waterman,Stan Webber, and Art Turner. But getting back to Tom's show we see that he has quite an array of talent to present to us tonight, or should I say this morning? To start the show off with a bang, we see four cuties from the Copa Cabana;namely, Pat Russo, Eleanor Bates, Jane Ann Powers, and Ramona Gonzalez. If they don't wake the audience up, nothing will. Next we see that stunningly beautiful star of stage,screen and radio the incomparable Joan Welch. Yes indeed, it's very easy to understand why she was selected as the prettiest girl in the graduation class. Tom seems reluctant to let her go off the stage, and we don't blame him, but he must make the supreme sacrifice. He realizes, great showman that he is, that the show must go on.Coming on the television screen we see Bernie Powers who gave up a great career in baseball to become America's foremost painter. Bernie says he really doesn't have any talent at all. He just dumps the paint on the canvas and sloshes it about with a huge paint brush. Because of this fact, many of his fans gave him the nickname "Brush." It maybe interesting to note here that Dickie Chambers manufactures the type of brush that Bernie uses. However, this is only a hobby with Dick, as his real job is with the F.B.I. He has memorized the number plate of every car owner in the U. S. So you can see that the honorable George Atwood who was recently appointed as the new director of the F.B.I.,is quite pleased with the services of Dickie "I Never Forget a Number" Chambers.

But now we see that Tom is about ready to conclude his show by presenting the "Melancholy Three." They are Joe McCarthy, Bob Gaudette, and Russ Mayer. These three boys have formed a Lonely Hearts Club, and their theme song which they now sing to you is IF THE GIRL YOU WANT DOESN'T WANT YOU, WELL THEN, BOY,YOU'RE ALL THROUGH.

And now, not wishing to leave the class of '51 on such a disconsolate note, we leave you with the assurance that these three boys and the rest of the graduation class will,in the future, solve all their problems and realize the fulfillment of all their hopes and dreams.

CLASS WILL

By Phyllis French and Sandra Parrott

We, the Class of One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One of Whitman High School of Plymouth County in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and judgment, do on this Ninth day of June in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One, hereby devise and bequeath this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Bayley and the entire faculty we leave our deepest gratitude for the untiring effort in the huge task of educating us.

To the Junior Class we leave our traditional reserved seats at the two large end tables in the lunchroom.

To the Sophomores we leave a thirst even greater than our own for learning.

To the Freshmen we leave all our heirlooms...and a glimmer of hope for their future.

To Miss Allen we leave a radar screen to keep a magic eye on each student.

To the Dramatic Club we leave future acting teams to match that of Anne Close and Gerald Barclay.

To all future Seniors we leave a warning that four years are not as long as they would seem to be.

To the 1952 Madame Curie, Marie Sullivan leaves her skill in chemistry.

To Chester Duncan we leave John Auzin's skill at tickling the ivories.

To Nancy Grover we leave the friendliness of Joanne Brooks.

To Richard Blute we leave Ned Parks' good grooming.

Joline Snow's cheerfulness we leave to Shirley Mattson.

To David Loring and Anne Duarte we leave the dancing skill of Janet Gray and Joseph DaSilva.

Jean Tibbetts' neatness we leave to Marion Grover.

To David Derosier we leave Ronald Wright's singing ability.

To Robert Hatch we leave Gerald Barclay's roguishness.

Patricia McMillan bequeathes her hobby of boys to Patricia Libby.

To Phillip Staples we leave Howard Waterman's lackadaisicalness.

To Anne Perry is bequeathed the athletic ability of Lorraine Tassinari.

To Richard Cheromcka we leave Norman Kenneally's good looks.

To the School library we leave a red carpet on which eager students may tread the path to learning.

To all future driving course students we leave the fond hope that they may match our achievement and skill while giving fewer headaches to Mr. Danielson.

To students who wish to attend school dances in the years to come we leave a magnificent ballroom with adjoining refreshment booth.

To Room 116 we leave easy chairs for those students who make a habit of keeping the teacher amused every day.

Lastly, we make, constitute, and hereby appoint Mr. Bayley the executor of this our last Will and Testament.

In witness thereof we have hereunto subscribed our names this twenty-sixth day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One.

Minnie Mouse
Petunia Pig

This instrument was on the day of the date hereof, signed, published and declared by the said testators to be their Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at their request have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses, in their presence and in the presence of each other.

CLASS HISTORY

By Claire MacDonald and Donald Christiansen

Claire: Don, can you believe it? It's been four years since we were Freshmen. Remember that first day of school? When we came in the first thing we did was look at the bulletin board to find our homerooms!! Remember how we wandered about the building, our eyes wide open,wondering if we'd ever be at home here? But we didn't get lost even if the place was so huge.

Don: You probably didn't, but I did. While in my history class I was called down to the office. I tried, but the only way I could reach the office was by going outside and walking to the front of the building.

Claire: Well, I bet you weren't the only one who got lost.

Don: Maybe not. One of the first things that I recall at our opening session of school as freshmen was the coach's talk to my gym class in Room 5. Of course this was intended only for boys!

Claire: We girls got our instructions, too.

Don: I'll never forget how the seniors looked at us as if to say, "They get smaller every year."

Claire: Yes, but look how we've grown in four years. Take tiny Stretch Taylor--he's 6 feet 5 inches now.

Don: Remember our first election? It was for monitors. Even we small freshmen could direct the upper classmen and keep order while passing in the halls.

Claire: Yes, we were on our way to a new and altogether different kind of school life. And we were an important part of the school, for our opinion was often asked through the representatives to theStudent Council.

Don: Already the varsity was going through daily workouts preparing for opening day. Our junior varsity was quickly shaping itself together under the watchful hands of Mr. Yetten. Well, the games followed each other quickly, and we ended up our schedule just before Thanksgiving Day. I can still remember that sixty-yard touchdown run by Dick Derosier in the Bridgewater game.

Claire: I can, too. He really was the hero of the day. We won't forget the playing of Bob Singleton and Sam Mclaughlin that year either.

Don: At the Thanksgiving Day rally we freshmen made quite a showing with the help of the coach and two cheerleaders,Janet Gray and Eleanor Bates. It was no fault of ours that the ceiling didn't collapse.

Claire: Soon after that, basketball started for you boys and for us. Many were the games we attended during the months of January and February. Ugha Loud started on his way to stardom even that year.

Don: For the boys that didn't try out for the high school teams, there was the intramural league. As I think back, all I can say is it was pretty rough. Those big seniors had no consideration whatsoever; that is for us lowly freshmen.

Claire: We girls had our intramural basketball too. Of course it was a bit tamer than your league, but we still had a wonderful time.

Don: Our freshman year was passing away, for it was soon April and baseball. Our junior varsity baseball team had a very good season.Bernie Powers sparkled in the infield and Bob Singleton did in the outfield.

Claire: We did our part in sports but were outcasts socially. We were allowed to attend the dances of other classes but we couldn't have any of our own.

Don: We kept on studying the days kept slipping by, and soon it was time for our Standard and final tests. Soon after the testing was completed,we were out of school and beginning our ten-week vacation.

Claire: A well-deserved one, I might add, for our class had done a wonderful job. It looked as if we were heading for a bright future.

Don: During the summer some of us worked and some loafed--that is until our mothers reminded us by buying clothes for our fast-approaching Sophomore year.

Claire: In the fall we returned to classes thinking ourselves veterans of great experience. Now we could call ourselves Sophomores.

Don: We thought that was wonderful until Miss Gilbert shattered our egos by telling us that the word means "wise fool." Now we could choose leaders for ourselves as the upperclassmen. The first election resulted with Norman Kenneally as president; Eleanor Bates, vice president; Bernie Powers, treasurer;and Joline Snow, secretary. Studying came easier that year. Probably it was because we were used to spending three, four, and five hours on our homework each night. We really took our studies seriously.

Claire: With the arrival of cold weather and ice, some of our boys started practicing for hockey. Remember how Ed McSweeney really made that puck fly? Bob Gaudette was some goalie, too.

Don: Yes, and our class wasn't to be outdone socially either. Remember our first dance?

Claire: How could I forget it? Can't you still see us making all those hearts? It was called the "Festival of Hearts," you know. With all that planning and working with the capable help of Mrs. Payton and Miss Taylor, and how the gym looked! And we made money, too.

Don: Yes, at last our class had a vank account.

Claire: We'd certainly need it for our senior year.

Don: Graduation of the class of 1949 meant more to some of us that year, for we participated in the exercises.

Claire: Remember how important we felt getting out of classes to go over to the Town Hall and practice with the Seniors?

Don: With Mrs. Pratt and Mr. Nery as our advisors, and Norm Kenneally our president, Eleanor Bates, vice president; Joline Snow, secretary; and Bernie Powers, treasurer; we were ready for our next-to-the-last year of school.

Claire: We were now on the first floor---much nearer the lunch room. I'll never forget the famous "lunch room dash"!Our life wasn't worth much with you boys rushing down the corridor.

Don: What a difference in speed--going to lunchroom, going to classes!

Claire: And now we were able to exhibit our great dramatic talents by joining Dramatic Club.

Don: Our acting really paid off. Rumor has it that Hollywood scouts soon will be seeking the services of Anne Close, Richard Kellaway and Rags Barclay.

Claire: We had another great football season when we were Juniors. Abington was defeated.

Don: I still have a piece of their goal posts at home too.

Claire: Just before that big event we had our dance, on November 18.

Don: Although we were upperclassmen we did speak to the freshmen and sophomores to sell tickets.

Claire: We enjoyed and welcomed our Christmas vacation and came back to begin our basketball season.

Don: Fine team play by Ugha Loud and sharp shooting by Dick Derosier sparked the team to victory in the South Shore Tournament in Brockton. We were the champions of the district.

Claire: The girls' intramural league was again a success as was the Girls' High School Team. Lorraine Tassinari was the best all-round play maker and point getter of Miss Pratt's basketball team.

Don: Our class made history that year, for we were the first class of Whitman High School able to buy rings in the Junior year.

Claire: We selected a gold ring with black onyx

Claire: top and W. H. S. engraved in gold on the top of it.

Don: It's a very attractive ring.

Claire: The year really slipped by;for it was already June.The Seniors were preparing for graduation and from our class the Class Day ushers were chosen.

Don: Yes, and we juniors decorated the lunchroom for the class banquet.

Claire: Next year we would eat.

Don: We completed our standards and finals and the last day of school arrived. To my bewilderment we held no regualr classes.

Claire: That was because the periods were only twenty minutes long.

Don: You're probably right, but anyway at ten o'clock we were free for two whole weeks.

Claire: Then, at last, back for our last year at W. H. S.

Don: Yes, we were Seniors--the status we had long dreamed of. But, surprisingly enough we felt no different.

Claire: Early in the year we chose Norm Kenneally President, and Bernie Powers, Treasurer again; but we had a new Vice-president and Secretary --Norma Coughlin andJoanne Brooks.

Don: We had our Senior Dance--Davy Jones's Locker--we made $85.52 which was really a record.

Claire: We'll all agree that football this year was one of the best. Maybe we didn't win too many games, but the spirit was really wonderful. Remember our rally this year, and how we nearly brought the roof down?

Don: And to top it all off there was the rally up-town which was surely one to remember! No wonder we "beat Abington!"

Claire: Our class play was certainly a different one; eight of our classmates even became redheads for the occasion.

Don: Who will ever forget Anne Close's and Richard Kellaway's michievous dozen in their portrayal of the famous Gilbreth family?

Claire: Not long afterwards came the football banquet for all the players. At that banquet we really had some wonderful speakers.

Don: Yes and you know all the important events won't be forgotten so easily by anyone. With the newly started school paper we have all taken a keener interest in everything.

Claire: And studies have seemed more interesting too. We've had so many educational movies in English. They really added to our classes. Remember the Macbeth one?

Don: Yes, but I think the class made up of all boys put on a better dramatization of Macbeth than the movie. Dick Derosier in the role of Lady Macbeth is one to remember.

Claire: We had another very welcome addition to our school this year--Mr. Howland, our guidance director.

Don: We of '51 have certainly had more than better help than any other group.

Claire: You know, Don, room 208 is one we'll not forget. I'll never forget those smells we used to concoct. The Chlorine gas was so sufficating we nearly drained the ammonia bottle dry to keep from being overcome.

Don: Oh come on, it couldn't have been that bad. You girls always make things out worse than they are.

Claire: Well, it surely was bad. Barbara Nichols nearly fell out the window trying to escape the fumes.

Don: In our class we had a real chemist, Dr. Thomas McCarthy. During one of his many demonstrations he tried to hasten the evaporation by heating the substance. The result? An explosion that spattered a brown liquid over everything and everyone.

Claire: In no time at all spring come and we appropriately used this as a theme of our Senior Dance--Spring Festival. It was a wonderful dance, especially for our class secretary, Joanne Brooks, whose certain finger on the left hand sparkled with a beautiful diamond.

Don: What a busy time this had been for all of us, working feverishly on the yearbook,to assign all the parts.

Claire: Then the fifteenth of June--graduation--a day that might seem to bring everything to an end. Yet we have all heard it is a beginning--a beginning of another chapter on our lives.

Don: Our final event was the reception, which everyone of us really enjoyed.

Claire: We, the class of '51 had made history. As our members part we look forward to the meeting once again at our reunions.

Class Ode

We now go forth from our fair Whitman High.
We've gained a wealth that gold could never buy.
Work often a pleasure that brought great delight,
For as the years go, the goal now comes into sight.

Just a farewell, Whitman High, but not good-by.
Leaving you with joy, joy and yet a sigh.
Sighs for the days we now leave far behind.
Joy for the many bright years we'll find.

We've done our best for the school and our friends.
Time will go by; good deeds will never end.
We have gained the knowledge to last a life through.
For what you have done, our thoughts will return to you.

Just a farewell, Whitman High, but not good-by.
Leaving you with joy, joy and yet a sigh.
Sighs for the days we now leave far behind.
Joy for the many bright years we'll find.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council held its initial meeting of the 1950-51 season in October. At this meeting the following were elected as officers: President, Ned Parks; Vice-President, Madeline McCarthy; Secretary, Elaine Welch; Treasurer, John Tarvainen; Executive Board, Robert Hatch and Anne Perry.

It was voted to hold meetings on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. Following the usual custom, we renewed our membership in The National Association of Student Councils. During the week before Christmas, the Student Council led the school in singing carols in the gym.

Our delegates and representatives attended the fall convention of the Southeastern Massachusetts Student Council held at Sharon High School. After a very interesting business meeting, we enjoyed a marvelous dinner in the Sharon luncheon room. Dancing was held in the auditorium.

On April 11, 1951, delegates and representatives attended the Convention at Dartmouth High School. Elaine Welch was elected to go to the National Convention of Student Councils at Wellesley in the Spring. After the business meeting, we had a delicious supper. After this, entertainment was provided to the enjoyment of all.

As usual the two annual drives, the Red Cross and March of Dimes, were successful. In order to earn the money, the Student Council sold ice cream at the basketball games. That, together with the money from the coke machine, has provided a substantial income.

Among our accomplishments was a school newspaper, started and backed by the Student Council. We enjoyed, too, a very good talent assembly sponsored by the same group. The Grange thought so highly of the assembly that they wanted it put on in their hall. Book covers, with a picture of Whitman High on them, were ordered for the students. Parliamentary procedure was also introduced into the meetings of the Student Council with excellent results.

Ice cream was sold at the baseball games. So, in this manner, we ended a very successful season at W. H. S.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

On Friday evening, December 8, the Senior Class Play,"Cheaper by the Dozen", was presented in Whitman High School auditorium.

The setting was the Gilbreth home in Montclair, New Jersey, in the early twenties. As the curtain opened, two of the Gilbreth children, Frank (Gerald Barclay) and Ernestine (Madeline McCarthy) stepped through a large paper book beautifully lettered "Cheaper by the Dozen" and began reminiscing of younger days.

When Dad (Richard Kellaway) entered, took out his stop watch and whistled assembly call, the house came down. Nine of the dozen Gilbreth children lined up across the stage in order of stature, from Fred (Thomas McCarthy) to Lillian (Barbara Reade). All were dressed in authentic costumes of the 1920's, the girls wearing middy blouses, long black skirts, and black cotton stockings; the boys knickers, knee stockings and sport shirts. Topping the whole effect were nine bright red wigs, rented especially for the performance.

The first act dealt mainly with the attempts of Anne (Barbara Nichols), the oldest child, aided by her sisters Ernestine and Martha (Joanne Brooks), to convince their father that they should be allowed to wear silk stockings, short underthings, and have dates. The essence of the whole play lies in the scene where Dr. Burton (Charles Sweeney) warns Dad he has a bad heart and may not live long. The family, not knowing this,does not understand why Dad is trying to push as many of his dozen as possible through school so that there will be less of a load on Mother (Anne Close) when he is gone.

Anne,in open rebellion to Dad's attempts to cut down her education, accepts a date with the cheerleader, Joe Scales, (Bernard Powers). Dad gives his permission for the date under the condition that he go along as chaperon. Joe refuses, and much to Anne's embarrassment, tells the whole school what happened.

Act Two took place a few weeks later while Miss Brill (Pat Goldmann), a lady psychology teacher,is giving the Gilbreth children a series of intelligence tests. Anne, accompanied by her younger brother Bill (Joseph DaSilva), has been to a Matinee with Larry (Charles Shaw),Montclair High's star fullback. As a result she is late for the tests. Martha and Ernestine, not intentionally cheating, tell Anne some of the answers to one test. To make matters more complicated, Larry has asked her to attend a dance that night; but, because she is caught cheating, she not only doesn't get to the dance but is told she cannot graduate ahead of her class as her father intended.

In the final act Anne learns of her father's heart trouble just before he leaves to speak at the World Management Conference in London. Anne retakes her tests and, besides being able to graduate ahead of her class, is allowed to go to the Senior Prom with Larry.

The humor of the play was much increased by the antics of the dog, Lady, and two more of the Gilbreth dozen, Jackie (Bob Gaudette) and Dan (John Swan). Also in the supporting cast was Claire MacDonald as Mrs. Fitzgerald, the housekeeper.

Much credit goes to Patricia McMillan, prompter;John Auzin, stage manager;and Miss Gilbert, our faithful coach,whose efforts enabled the play to be such a success.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Senior-Junior Dramatic Club of 1950-'51 conducted its first meeting in September, 1950, under the direction of Miss Brega, club advisor. The officers elected for the 1950-'51 term were as follows:

President	Joline Snow
Vice-President	Rita Brine
Secretary	Gerald Barclay
Treasurer	Patricia Goldmann

This year's club membership is comprised of fifty-one, one of the largest memberships the club has had.

In a January assembly "Hold That Line", a one-act comedy,coached by Miss Brega, was played to an appreciative student-faculty audience.

On March 30, 1951, the club held its annual spring performance. This year was the first time a three-act play has been presented by the Dramatic Club. "Family Circle", directed by Miss Brega, depicted the life of Cornelia Otis Skinner. The old costumes of the late 1920's added greatly to the play.

An annual outing was held in the spring when the group took a trip to Boston.

Appreciation to Advertisers

We thank our many friends who have taken advertising space in our book, and we hope that you in turn will patronize them.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

Second Row: D. Derosier, M. Smith, M.McCarthy, R. Wright, E. Donahue, B. Powers, A. Terzian, N.Snow, S. Suckow.
Third Row: N. Hedin, M. Smith, E. Turner, A. Perry, V. Correia, E. Welch, G. Fox, B. Nichols, P. McMillan, B. Stetson.

NEWSPAPER

For the first time in several years Whitman High School is again issuing a paper, sponsored by the Student Council. There are two main purposes of the paper: first, to inform the students of all events concerning W.H.S.,and second to offer the students practice in expressing their ideas. Then, too,the paper provides a good means of advertising for extra-curricular activities such as school dances and ball games. The staff chosen by the Advisors and the Student Council is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	Patricia Goldmann
Ass't. Editor-in-Chief	Richard Kellaway
Business Manager	Russell Mayer
Junior Editor	Marion Grover
Sophomore Editor	Edward Donahue
Freshman Editor	Evangeline Liapis
Advisor	Miss Harrington

The staff immediately set to work and planned the first issue, consisting of six pages and named the "Spectator." On February 5, 1951, all two hundred copies were sold. Encouraged by the interest of the student body, the staff plans to increase the number of issues printed until there are enough for all. When this goal has been reached,it is very possible that the "Spectator" will become a printed paper.

The staff is very grateful to all those who wrote articles and gave contributions to the paper. We also appreciate the efforts of the typists. To Miss Harrington, too, goes a note of thanks for her unceasing diligence and expert advice.

It is hoped by the entire staff that the "Spectator," supported by faculty and student body,will continue on through the years, a guide and informant for all.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

(Left to Right)

First Row: N. Coughlin, Mr. Dow, J. Snow.

Second Row: D. Laurin, R. Butler, N. Kenneally, W. Loud, J. DaSilva.

The Athletic Council held its first meeting on September 11, 1950, to decide when the annual rally was to be held. The 1950-1951 council consisted of President, Norman Kenneally; Vice-President, William Loud; Secretary, Norma Coughlin; Treasurer, Joseph DaSilva; Senior Representative, Joline Snow; Junior Representative, David Laurin; and Sophomore Representative, Robert Butler. Mr. Doran, who was elected Faculty Advisor, was recalled into the army before the year started. The council decided to hold its rally on Thursday, September 28, 1950.

The rally was highlighted by talks by Mr. Lane, Mr. Dow, Mr. Yetten, and Coach Malinowski. The cheerleaders did a grand job in leading the student body in a number of cheers. The rally proved to be a success, and again the result was 100% membership in the A. A.

On October 20, 1950, by state law all the funds of the A. A. were turned over to the town and the selectmen will now be in charge. This Whitman Public Schools Athletic Fund Committee will handle all disbursements and receipts of the athletic program at the high school.

The Thanksgiving rally was held on November 22, 1950. A proclamation written by the senior members of the football squad, stating that they would win the Abington game, was read by Robert Willett and Robert Aitken. The captains said a few words, the coaches gave speeches, and the cheerleaders and band did their part to make this rally a success.

SPORT 1950

As in the past everyone looked forward to see if this year's Whitman team could equal its rivals in the 1950 schedule. With one of the smallest squads the school has ever had Coach Malinowski, aided by his assistant,Coach Yetten, put the boys through rugged practices.

Expecting an easy win at Bridgewater, the team was in for a surprise.After getting a quick touchdown in the first period, the team in the third period allowed the Bridgewater boys to get off a 72-yard touchdown march, which tied the score at 7-7. Not looking for a tie,Whitman, in the last period, marched 65 yards, the touchdown coming with 30 seconds remaining to play.

Although having a game in the win column, Whitman had to be ready for a powerful Stoughton team. Powerful it was, for it snowed us under 30-0.

The following week our boys rebounded from the Stoughton setback, with a 19-6 victory over the Blue Devils of Stetson High. We excelled our opponents in every play.

Whitman continued its winning streak by running over Plymouth 19-0. The Red and Black line proved its strength by holding these ancient rivals scoreless.

Canton, which replaced St. Mary's, came to play us with eighteen straight victories. In a game that could have gone either way with a number of breaks, Canton went home victorious with a score of 13-0.

The Rockland classic was predicted to be a thriller, and it certainly was. The fans were held breathless as they witnessed some of the greatest runs of the year. Whitman took the game by the score of 27-19.

Hingham continued to hold the jinx over Whitman by beating us 12-7 on a late scoring pass.

The following Saturday Middleboro surprised us with more power than was suspected. Whitman went down to defeat 28-12.

Determined to make it three consecutive wins over Abington High, Whitman went into the game Thanksgiving morning in exuberant spirits. For the first time in a number of years,the student body sat together to cheer the team on to victory. With this support behind them,the team surged ahead to score on the first play from scrimmage. Abington bounced right back to tie the game at 7-7. The score remained the same until midway-through the third period. At this time Abington was forced to kick from their own 15-yard line. On receiving, Whitman picked up the pigskin on the 50-yard line and raced for the decisive touchdown and won 13-7.

To top off a perfect day our victorious squad witnessed the Whitman Town Team beat Abington Old Town, 13-0.

The Senior lettermen were presented with sweaters and major W's at the Senior Banquet and gold footballs at the Kiwanis Banquet. Those receiving sweaters and footballs were Co-captain, Robert Singleton; Co-captain, Richard Derosier; Manager, Gerald Barclay; Alton Taylor, Richard Colwell,William Loud, Robert Aitken, George bonjokian, Ronald Wright, Lawrence E. Mc Laughlin, Robert Willett.

Basketball

The Whitman High hoopsters started the season off by losing a close game to Rockland 39 to 30. The first win came in the following contest when the boys displayed fine shooting at Randolph. The score was 46 to 34. At Abington our boys continued to hit and downed their rivals 45 to 33. By sailing over Middleboro High by a score of 50 to 41, we gave proof that we were a threat in the Old Colony League.

The next three encounters knocked us off the top and just about eliminated our chances of being champions of the league. The winners were Hingham, Plymouth, and Abington.

In one of the most thrilling games of the year, the Red and Black upset Braintree High in an overtime 51 to 50. The next week Randolph again was no match for our boys as they were swamped by a score of 68 to 28. At Rockland, our boys were once again beaten 65 to 56. In a game with Hingham our boys displayed fancy passwork and deadly shooting and we came out on top 61 to 55. Middleboro gained revenge for their loss early in the season by winning on their home floor 66 to 53.

The Plymouth game was nip and tuck all the way, but when the final whistle blew, Plymouth led 39 to 36.

In entering the South Shore Tournament at the Y. M. C. A. gym in Brockton,we won the first round by defeating Sharon 27 to 25.

The second round was disastrous,for we were beaten 76 to 59 by Mansfield.

The team consisted of Captain William Loud, Joseph McCarthy, Norman Kenneally, Ronald Babineau, Richard Cheromcka, and Robert Willett.

Girls' Basketball

Girls' basketball got off to an excellent start this year. The Seniors, undefeated, took the intramural honors.

The Varsity teams were soon chosen from the intramural teams. Marie Sullivan was elected first team captain; and Anne Buckley,second team captain. Marie McMillan and Beverly Stetson ably served as managers. Hopes were high for a successful season, when the girls won their first two games. The season's end found the team with a fairly successful record of four wins and six losses. The following is a schedule and scores of the games.
